Information on the group in DC:

Immigration from India to the United States is currently at its highest level in history. Indian Americans have attained the highest educational levels of all ethnic groups in the US. Also, according to the most recent census, Indian Americans had the highest household income of all ethnic groups. The vast majority of Indian Americans in the Metro DC area are Hindu. Because of their education level, it is common for Indian Americans to speak fluent English, which provides excellent opportunities for sharing the Gospel without the need for a translator.
