

Peru

Nationalities:

Peruvian

DC Area Population:

Approximately 10,000

Language: Spanish, Quechua, and other indigenous languages

Religion:

Catholic (majority)

Protestant

Person of Peace:

None identified yet

Information on the group in DC:

There are many clusters of Peruvian communities scattered throughout the Metro DC area, and there are also several clusters located outside the beltway. Peruvians tend to gather in community around food and are usually found in areas intermixed with Salvadorans and other Latino nationalities. The vast majority of Peruvians in and around the DC area are nominal Catholics.

