FOCUSING ON OUR CALL

LEXI JUDY

THE WILL OF GOD IS OUR _____.

THE CALL OF GOD IS TO BE _____.

The only way to be holy is through sanctification. Therefore,

» The ultimate _____ of God is fulfilled by the daily _____ of God being fulfilled in our lives.
The call of being _____.

We can't fulfill our call apart from Christ because we cannot be holy apart from Christ. We can't be holy in and of ourselves, that's why we need Jesus. Jesus had to live the life we could never live and die the death we could never die so that He could empower us to live in a way we never could apart from Him.

» God cares far more about our _____ than our _____.

God cares far more about our personal sanctification than our public ministry.

» The ultimate calling is to _____.

Relationship with Jesus is what leads to our sanctification. It is impossible to be in a genuine relationship with Jesus without _____.

If He has called us to sanctification, He will sanctify us.

And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (Philippians 1:6)

We tend to view God's calling on our lives as a destination we arrive at when really it is something we are becoming through the transformative power of the Holy Spirit. Don't focus on asking God to bless your plan and bless your ministry, focus on asking God to transform your heart. We live in an immediate gratification society.

THE SPIRIT OF GOD IS _____.

Our ministries will crumble when our character does.

HOLINESS IS ALWAYS WORTH THE FIGHT.

God has given us what we need to determine His will and fight temptation through the power of the Holy Spirit.

When we choose sin over holiness, we choose ourselves over our call.

When we choose impurity, we disregard God.

Sin is when you're viewing things from the perspective of how you are personally inconvenienced instead of how it creates a barrier between you and God or someone else and God.

YOU MAKE THE CHOICE DAILY TO BE OBEDIENT TO GOD RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE.
