
2021 Annual Homecoming

PROGRAM GUIDE & Reports

SBCVirginia
You are not alone.

from OUR PRESIDENT

25 Years of Faithfulness

It is very interesting to note the biblical example of the church at Corinth. It was a church planted by Paul in one of the largest, most difficult, and challenging cities of its day. Yet in 1 Corinthians 1:2, Paul says, "To the church of God, which is at Corinth." This church belonged to God. The verse continues to speak of its members as being "sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours."

Like the church at Corinth, our churches today belong to God and have been called to be set apart for His glory. We must continue to be faithful, to press on until Jesus comes. Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 1:9 why we must press on and continue to be faithful: "God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord."

Please join me in honoring and celebrating the faithfulness of our executive director, Dr. Brian Autry, and his excellent staff. And once again, we offer our gratitude to Dr. Grant Ethridge and Libertylive.Church for graciously extending their service and facilities for this Annual Homecoming. Thank you all for giving to the Lord!

It has been both humbling and a distinct honor to serve as your convention president for the last two years. My continual prayer for the SBCV is captured in the words of 1 Corinthians 15:58, which state, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

Sincerely,

ALLEN MCFARLAND
Senior Pastor, Calvary Evangelical Baptist Church
President, SBC of Virginia

from OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

On behalf of your SBC of Virginia team, we join with your convention officers, Executive Board, and our wonderful host church and pastor, to welcome you to the SBCV's Annual Homecoming.

This year, we mark 25 years of advancing the Gospel together! We are thankful we can worship the Lord and celebrate how the Lord is working through His Church to send missionaries around the world, share the Good News of Jesus with the lost, equip ministers of the Gospel, and plant and revitalize churches.

Twenty-five years ago, when I attended the very first SBCV annual meeting, I had only been married a couple of years—no children and no mortgage. Over the years, some things have changed, but we continue to hold faithful to God's Word, boldly proclaim Jesus is Lord, and work together to make Him known.

At this year's Annual Homecoming, we will give thanks for 25 years of advancing the Gospel together. We will be challenged to continue in the faith once and for all delivered to the saints. We will hear and see how the Lord can use us in this generation and the next to reach our neighbors and the nations for Jesus Christ.

Welcome to the Annual Homecoming of the SBCV. Our prayer is that you will be encouraged by the ministry that is taking place, thanks to your church partnership in praying, sending, giving, and going through our Gospel partnership. Just like the past 25 years, the SBCV will continue to seek to come alongside local churches advancing the Gospel together to reach our neighbors and the nations for Jesus Christ!

Your brother in Christ,

BRIAN AUTRY
Executive Director, SBC of Virginia

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

He stated that "the faithfulness of Southern Baptist churches has carried us through, and we have received 98% of Cooperative gifts despite the pandemic. We really are better together and stronger together." He then invited everyone to the 2021 SBC Annual Meeting on June 12–16 in Nashville, Tennessee. He stated that the 2021 Ministry Investment Plan is the same dollar amount that was approved for the 2020 Ministry Plan. The SBC of Virginia continues to give 51% of revenues to the SBC with 49% going to SBCV endeavors. He hopes that SBCV churches will continue to give, pray, and send, and that God will use the dollars that are invested to get the Gospel to millions who do not know Jesus. Autry thanked everyone for their trust and then thanked the Executive Board for their work on the Ministry Investment Plan.

Velloney thanked Urbine and Autry and their teams for what they have done this year to help our churches and then asked for a round of applause.

Constitution

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONSERVATIVES OF VIRGINIA

Adopted November 2003 • Revised November 2011

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia, hereinafter sometimes referred to as SBCV or SBC of Virginia.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

As an autonomous state convention cooperating with the Southern Baptist Convention, the SBCV is a fellowship of Southern Baptist Convention churches cooperating to assist local congregations in their task of fulfilling the Great Commission as commanded by our Lord Jesus Christ.

ARTICLE III – DOCTRINAL POSITION

We believe that the Bible is the verbally inspired Word of God, wholly without error as originally given by God, and is sufficient as our only infallible rule of faith and practice. We deny that other books are inspired by God in the same way as the Bible. The fundamental truths to which we are committed are expressed in The Baptist Faith and Message, 2000, with the clarification of inerrancy as described above. The doctrinal position of the Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia shall not be binding upon any local church; however, the SBCV recognizes its right and responsibility to determine its identity, including doctrinal parameters, and to include within its affiliation those churches who can freely agree with it, and to exclude those churches that do not.

ARTICLE IV – RELATIONSHIPS

While autonomous in its own affairs, Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia, recognizing the autonomy of other Baptist bodies, disclaims all right of exercising authority over any church, association, or convention. However, the Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia may rescind the affiliation of any church, which shall, in the judgment of Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia, depart in doctrine or practice from the affiliation qualifications set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws.

Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia is open to cooperation with other Christian bodies insofar as the SBCV determines that such cooperation does not compromise the doctrinal stance of the SBCV.

ARTICLE V – AFFILIATION

A. AFFILIATION QUALIFICATIONS:

An affiliated church must agree with the foundational beliefs of the SBCV set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws. Affiliated Churches must actively cooperate with the work of the SBCV through regular financial support to the Cooperative Program.

B. METHOD OF CHURCH'S BECOMING AFFILIATED:

1. Any Baptist church desiring affiliation in this body shall complete an affiliation application indicating agreement with the doctrinal position of the SBCV and make an initial contribution to the SBCV. Such application must be received at the state office at least two months prior to the Annual Meeting.

2. All churches having submitted an affiliation application shall be examined by the Executive Board (or a designated subcommittee thereof) as to their qualifications. If found acceptable, the Executive Board will grant provisional affiliation status to the applicant church. The Executive Board will present all applicant churches to the next Annual Meeting with an affirmative or negative recommendation.

3. All churches receiving at least 3/4 affirmative majority at the Annual Meeting shall be granted affiliation (hereinafter known as Affiliated Churches).

C. REPRESENTATION AT MEETINGS OF THIS BODY.

1. Affiliated Churches shall be entitled to send Messengers to the Annual Meeting. Each Affiliated Church shall be entitled to two (2) Messengers. The number of Messengers after the first two shall be calculated as follows: One additional Messenger for each $250 given to the work of the SBCV with the total number of Messengers not exceeding fifteen (15). Giving shall be determined for the most recent twelve-month period for which giving records are available.

2. Messengers shall be approved by the Affiliated Churches for which they represent.

D. TERMINATION OF AFFILIATION

Any Affiliated Church may withdraw from this body at its discretion. This body may revoke a church's affiliation should that church cease to concur with the body's doctrinal position or cease to contribute to the Cooperative Program through the SBCV for four consecutive quarters.

The Executive Board shall have all doctrinal disputes and issues related to the seating of Annual Meeting Messengers arising on the floor immediately referred to them for study without further discussion. The results of such studies shall be presented to the Messengers not later than the next Annual Meeting. It is required that anyone with a doctrinal concern should indicate the same in writing by letter to the Executive Director sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE VI – MEETINGS

The Messengers shall meet at least annually at such time and place as may be designated at a preceding Annual Meeting. Additional meetings may be called by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VII – AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by the Messengers at any Annual Meeting of the Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia by two-thirds vote of those voting, provided that notice of the proposed amendment shall have been given to the member churches at least 60 days prior to the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE VIII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern SBCV, its meetings of Messengers at the Annual Meeting, committees and Executive Board, in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, Constitution and Bylaws and any special rules of order the Messengers or Executive Board respectively may adopt.

FOOTNOTE:

The Constitution was adopted at the 2003 Annual Meeting, and this document includes revisions that were approved at the 2011 Annual Meeting.

3. In the event of such vacancy, the Executive Committee shall also be responsible for recommending an interim Executive Director to the Executive Board.

A. Dates of Rotation

Terms of office for outgoing officers, Executive Board members, and other committee members shall end on the last day of the Annual Meeting, allowing the newly elected officers and committee members to assume their responsibilities as of the conclusion of said meeting.

Resolutions by Messengers to be adopted by the SBCV shall be submitted in writing to the Resolutions Committee before the beginning of the first session of the Annual Meeting. Resolutions submitted for adoption by the Executive Board or other standing committees shall be published at least five weeks before the Annual Meeting. Adoption of resolutions shall require a 2/3 majority.

C. Meetings

The Annual Meeting of the SBCV shall convene alternately in various regions of the state as determined by the Executive Board. The Executive Board may call special statewide meetings provided a notice is given thirty days in advance stating the specific purpose for such meeting. Action at such meetings will be limited to matters specified in the advance notice of the meeting. Those Messengers present shall constitute the quorum.

D. Ministry Areas / Regional Groups

For the sake of geographical identity for Executive Board representation and for ministries and services, the SBCV shall be divided into as many region/ministry areas as deemed necessary. Local groups may form for the purpose of fellowship and training according to clusters of population of churches and the availability of meeting facilities and leadership.

E. Member Church Obligations

Member churches are urged to be involved and supportive of the direction of the SBCV. It is expected that member churches of the SBCV will endeavor to maintain a positive Christian witness, and involve themselves in the operation and success of the SBCV and, that said participation involves time investments and financial contributions given regularly as Cooperative Program support through the SBCV. The Executive Board shall be responsible to contact any church failing to maintain a positive Christian witness and/or failing to financially support the Cooperative Program through the SBCV for a period of one year, and seek to restore the member church; and, if necessary, recommend to Messengers in the Annual Meeting that the church's affiliation be rescinded.
