

STOP THE STALEMATE

Three components of resilient child discipleship: 1. _____ : Highly relational ministry
2. _____ : Deeply scriptural ministry
3. _____ : Truly experiential ministry

_____% of CMLs say the _____ should be the primary environment for discipleship; whereas, _____% of Parents say the _____ should be the primary environment for discipleship.

Why some children leave their faith by the time they are adults:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Across the board, about ____% in each group believes current events, mental health, social issues, and other difficult subjects should be open for discussion in church programs for kids.

Questions to consider:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

How do we break the Stalemate? Key Thoughts:

1. _____ : _____ between the _____ and _____ in _____.

We are to: _____ His mighty acts (Ps. 145:4) _____ of His commandments (Ps. 78:5-8)

_____ about His words at home, when you walk, lie down, and rise (Dt. 6:4-9)

Formal Discipleship:

Informal Discipleship:

2. _____ : _____ with other Christians.

Provide families the opportunity to s_____.

3. _____ : _____ to the _____ of parents and provide _____ - _____ resources to help them in their journey with children.

Visit: talkaboutdiscipleship.com & childdiscipleship.com

Breaking the stalemate begins with you!