Are you tired of waiting for the Lord's will?
FELIX SERMON

“...the Lord is my portion; therefore, I will wait for Him.” (Lamentations 3:24)

God is the shepherd of His people. He sent His Son to lead us as the sheep of His pasture. As Christians, we are assured that He will guide us and keep us on the right path 24 hours a day, seven days a week — a task which God Himself has undertaken because of His great love for us.

One of the many blessings of our lives as Christian is the assurance of God's presence that makes us different from our fellowmen. This implies that we live according to the path, which God has laid down for us in this life and the life to come.

We should live in the consciousness that life has a beginning, a progress, and an ending. The point of contact between God's revealed will and our personal obedience lies in the heart of a Christian that is why the Holy Spirit dwells in his heart to guard and preserve that connection in a spirit of sensitive attention to wait upon the will of our heavenly Father.
