Focused Thinking
KEN NIENKE

The nation of Israel crosses the Red Sea, Pharaoh's army is destroyed, and the people celebrate in song. Exodus 15:11 expresses their praise to God. "Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?" It was an appropriate response to the God who rescued them from slavery and gave them hope for a promised land.

What seems to dominate your thoughts? Is it fear about your health, anxiety about a relationship, or worry about your financial situation? If our thoughts are focused on our problems and minimally on God, then we stay stressed out. If our thoughts are focused on the majesty of God and minimally on our problems, then we have the correct perspective. It is our daily choice to have a big problem and a little God, or a big God and little problems.

A. W. Tozer once stated, "What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us." Pray for God to give you a grander view of who He is and His faithfulness.
