

Our Need of God's Presence

Felix Sermon

Devotion

July 21,
2019

“Be strong and courageous..... For the Lord your God goes with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you.” (Deuteronomy 31:6)

This is a promise that reminds us of who we are in the sight of God. The truth of the matter is, without Him we can do nothing. We need to heed the call of God in the silence, telling us that He is the Creator we are His masterpiece: that He is righteous, and we are unrighteous: that God is boundless, and we are very limited: that God does not grow weary, and we get tired and need rest. When we realize that we are powerless and God is powerful, this is the time that we will feel the presence of the Heavenly Father.

Only when we accept the fact that we can do nothing without the help of God and follow his Lordship in our lives can we be truly strong and courageous. Then, and only then, we can experience His presence within us. God is always there to encourage and support those who acknowledge His offer of divine presence for He said “Never will I leave; never will I forsake you.” (Hebrews 13:5)

