

We Can Know God

Brandon Hembree

Devotion

August 25,
2019

“Let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD.”
— Jeremiah 9:24

We all have favorite celebrities or athletes from our favorite movie or sports team. What would happen if you were in town one day and spotted them walking towards you? What would you say to them? Maybe you would begin talking to them about the character they played on TV or letting them know all the statistics you know about their team. However, one thing would make it an awkward encounter... You don't know them.

Just because you know about someone, doesn't mean you know them.

Jesus died on the cross so that there would be no more separation between us and God. God doesn't just want us to know ABOUT Him, He wants us to KNOW Him. We can know God. This ought to be the boast and victory in the church today. So, if there's something worth bragging about, it would be our intimacy with God.

We Can Know God

Brandon Hembree

Devotion

August 25,
2019

“Let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD.”
— Jeremiah 9:24

We all have favorite celebrities or athletes from our favorite movie or sports team. What would happen if you were in town one day and spotted them walking towards you? What would you say to them? Maybe you would begin talking to them about the character they played on TV or letting them know all the statistics you know about their team. However, one thing would make it an awkward encounter... You don't know them.

Just because you know about someone, doesn't mean you know them.

Jesus died on the cross so that there would be no more separation between us and God. God doesn't just want us to know ABOUT Him, He wants us to KNOW Him. We can know God. This ought to be the boast and victory in the church today. So, if there's something worth bragging about, it would be our intimacy with God.