

MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT: November 22, 2020

Jim & Theresa Flora Lesotho

Our missionaries Jim and Teresa Flora have served 11 years in Africa, in the nation of Lesotho.

That's a separate country, but it is completely surrounded by South Africa. All Lesotho is mountainous and high altitude. It's hard to get around; the dirt roads are sometimes not passable.

More than 2 million people live in Lesotho and almost all of them need to hear the gospel. Most people are poor, but the blue jeans you wear may have been sewn here in a factory.

Jim and Flora bring in teams of volunteers from Southern Baptist churches in the United States to help them. Flora is a nurse, so they often bring in medical teams to hold clinics. Partnerships with Southern Baptists are vital to their work.

Our own church is also partnering with Jim and Teresa, because we support them through our Cooperative Program giving.

Over the past 11 years, hundreds of people have come to faith in Christ, mostly because they hear the Bible stories Jim and Teresa tell to all who will listen.

Today, let's pray for these brave missionaries, who live in a hard place so people will know Christ.

52 Sundays is produced in partnership with the SBC Executive Committee, International Mission Board, North American Mission Board, Woman's Missionary Union, and the Baptist State Conventions.
