

T.J. & Dena Odom

SCOTLAND

Today in our missionary prayer time, we are praying for T.J. and Dena Odom, who serve in Glasgow, Scotland.

Now, before you start thinking kilts and vacations and such, let me tell you this: The biggest religion in Scotland is probably soccer.

People follow it religiously! The fact that God sent a Savior into our world to save us has no interest for them. Only about 2 percent of the Scottish people are Christians.

Scotland is indeed a great place to visit, but it's also a mission field. That's why our church is supporting T.J. and Dena through our Cooperative Program giving.

They have started a church and now they are discipling the members to be strong in their faith and share the gospel with others. Thousands more new churches are needed right now across Scotland.

So today, let's pray for T.J. and Dena as they live there in Glasgow with their two young children. Let's pray that God will give them wisdom and endurance, because the future of Scotland is in their hands.

Let's pray that God will call out bold new believers who will reach Scotland's five and a half million people for Christ.
