

How Will God Use You?

KEN MCLEMORE

Romans 15:20-21 "And thus I aspired to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was already named, so that I would not build on another man's foundation; but as it is written, 'They who had no news of Him shall see, and they who have not heard shall understand.'"

While on a mission trip, I will never forget a Muslim I spoke to while walking on the street. He lived in an area of the world where few people have access to the Gospel. He recently had a dream that he wanted to share with me. In this dream was a man dressed in all white, across a vast river, sitting on a white horse. The Muslim man asked the rider how he could cross the river to meet him. The response was "I will send someone to tell you." The Muslim gentleman looked at me and asked: "Are you that person?" While stunned, I immediately said yes and shared the story of the resurrection. That man became a believer that very day.

While God can easily use other ways to bring the Gospel to people, He still chooses to use us. It is amazing that in today's modern world there are 2.5 billion people who have little to no access to hear about Jesus – much like the man in our story. In this passage, Paul stresses the urgency of taking the Gospel to those who have no news of Jesus. As you pray today, ask the Lord how you and your church can be used to take the Gospel where it does not exist.

February 16, 2020
Devotion

 Coordinates with Resources: 2C

How Will God Use You?

KEN MCLEMORE

Romans 15:20-21 "And thus I aspired to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was already named, so that I would not build on another man's foundation; but as it is written, 'They who had no news of Him shall see, and they who have not heard shall understand.'"

While on a mission trip, I will never forget a Muslim I spoke to while walking on the street. He lived in an area of the world where few people have access to the Gospel. He recently had a dream that he wanted to share with me. In this dream was a man dressed in all white, across a vast river, sitting on a white horse. The Muslim man asked the rider how he could cross the river to meet him. The response was "I will send someone to tell you." The Muslim gentleman looked at me and asked: "Are you that person?" While stunned, I immediately said yes and shared the story of the resurrection. That man became a believer that very day.

While God can easily use other ways to bring the Gospel to people, He still chooses to use us. It is amazing that in today's modern world there are 2.5 billion people who have little to no access to hear about Jesus – much like the man in our story. In this passage, Paul stresses the urgency of taking the Gospel to those who have no news of Jesus. As you pray today, ask the Lord how you and your church can be used to take the Gospel where it does not exist.

February 16, 2020
Devotion

 Coordinates with Resources: 2C