

God is Not Finished With You

WENDELL HORTON

In Zechariah's third vision, an angel showed Zechariah a man with a measuring line, ready to measure Jerusalem. But then, the angel was approached by another angel who said, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.'"—Zechariah 2:4-5 (KJV)

The angel's message seems to instruct the man to not measure Jerusalem, because God was not through with the city.

Could this be you today? Do you feel that your walls of ministry are finished and measured? Be encouraged; God is not finished with you. If you are still breathing, there is something more you can do. Your greatest ministry, your greatest influence, may still be before you.

God is with you. He will protect you. There was no need of a wall because God said: "I, myself, will be a wall of fire around it." Remember, all we do is for His glory.

So keep pressing on faithful brother, God is with you.
