God's Promise
Stan Parris

Billy Graham has said, "Christians must never forget the little word, "go." It is two-thirds of the word "God," one third of the word "gospel" and half the word "good." It is a little word with a big meaning." Jesus stood on the mountainside and told His followers, "Go." "Go, and make disciples of all the nations." I am sure His small group of followers looked at each other asking, "Is He talking to us?" "What did He say?"

What Jesus was asking appeared to be impossible. He was talking to, at most, 500 people. The "world" had not been discovered yet. There were no ships, planes, television or internet. They had no money, their leader was leaving, and they had been rejected by society.

What is impossible with men is possible with God. With this commission comes God's commitment to help His church carry it out. He makes us a promise. "And surely I am with you always." God is not asking you to do this for Him, He is asking you to do this with Him. "God with you, all things are possible."
