LOCUS CHURCH

Middlesboro, Kentucky

About Locus Church:

Over 85% of the tri-state area does not attend church on any given Sunday. This percentage makes up the lost and the de-churched. Our goal is to design our Sunday morning gathering in a way where both of these groups will be inclined to attend and thus begin or rekindle their relationship as a follower of Christ. Our motto is “Changing People’s Ideas About Church.”

Pray:

- For a long-term place to meet.
- For leadership in some key areas.
- For wisdom in making decisions.
