

KJ & Sarah Beth Washington
Church Planter Apprentice
VILLAGE CHURCH
Midlothian, Virginia

About the Future Plant:

KJ is currently serving as a church planter apprentice at Village Church, which has two locations in the Richmond area. He and Sarah Beth believe God is calling them to plant a church in Waynesboro, VA.

The new church will be called New Valley Church, and its mission is to worship God by seeing as many people as possible transformed by the power of the Gospel. Its vision is to be a multi-ethnic church that reaches Waynesboro, Staunton, and Augusta County for the sake of the Gospel through church planting.

Ways to Partner:

- We are looking for partners to pray for the advancement of the Gospel in Waynesboro, Staunton, and Augusta County.
- We are looking to connect with potential launch team members.
- We are looking for financial partners to join us on mission.

Pray:

- For KJ as he finishes his apprenticeship at Village Church.
- For our leaders as they prepare to plant New Valley Church.
- For the spiritual growth of our launch team.
- For more relationships to be established with individuals and families who want to join us on mission in Waynesboro.
